

Chloe Wong

Strategy Analyst from the Philippines

achloew@gmail.com

Chloe Wong is Senior Foreign Affairs Research Specialist at the Center for International Relations and Strategic Studies (CIRSS), the research arm of the Philippines' Foreign Service Institute. As the Head of the Northeast Asia research section of CIRSS, she monitors the political and security developments in China, Japan, Taiwan, and the Korean Peninsula and relates their impact on the Philippines and ASEAN.

Chloe writes commentaries on international relations in various media in the Philippines and in Asia, and is engaged in track-two dialogues on community building in the Asia Pacific with an emphasis on ASEAN's central role in the region. She also teaches part-time and occasionally delivers lectures on global affairs in several universities in the Philippines.

Chloe holds a master's in International Affairs from the Australian National University, a master's in Asian Studies from the University of the Philippines, and a bachelor's in Commerce from the Assumption College in Manila.
